Tim Dahlum was 58 when he passed away peacefully on January 27, 2009. Tim was preceded in death by his father Ray and his son Daniel; survived by his mother Velora; his brother Duane and sister-in-law Barb; his cousin Jimmy Porter; numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins; sons Timothy and Jonathon; Kathy, his ex-wife and best friend for 40 years, and Kathy's adopted children Manuel and Amber; his grand-daughter Victoria (his pride and joy); and friends Ana, Joe, and Odette. Tim loved racing all of his life, the louder and the faster was all the better to him. He was the consummate salesman, and took immense pride in his work and the products he represented, whether it was automotive wheels and aftermarket parts, or racing safety equipment. He always loved life and the opportunities afforded to him by his work to meet and get to know so many people.
